Total =					297600	99200	34628717.50

The above quantities are as per plan and projections. This may vary due to unavoidable circumstances beyond control of management, for which no claim from the contractors will be admissible by the management. The distance slab mentioned above and hence its rates are approximate only and may vary subject to the measurement of actual distance by the distance measurement committee as per SOR. The distance and hence rate of sand transportation depends upon availability of sand at the Ghat mentioned above and may change if need arises. The distance slab mentioned above does not include river bed distance. The river bed distance of a particular ghat will be measured by the distance measurement committee which will be added to the distance of sand bunkers of different collieries up to the river bed. Accordingly distance slabs and hence rates will be ascertained as per effective SOR.

For detailed terms and conditions and information refer SOR available with the department. For detailed BOQ refer Annexure-1.

This bid is to be guided by detailed terms & conditions of the SOR effective from 01.07.2011 up to the period of contract.
